ITDFund is a newly created not-for-profit organisation established to provide grants for projects aimed at delivering solid enhancement to Australia's International Trade and Transport industry.

Funding for the new organisation was derived from when Tradegate Australia Limited was placed in voluntary liquidation.

ITDFund's Objective

ITDFund's objective is to promote, support, advance or enhance Australia's international trade and transport industry. The Fund aims to accomplish this by funding:

1. e-commerce projects in Australia which benefit the commercial, operational, legislative and regulatory processes supporting Australia's International Trade and Transport industry;
2. projects in Australia to assist Australian industry to facilitate international trade with its trading partners;
3. projects in Australia that encourage more efficient international supply chain solutions for Australian industry; and
4. projects in Australia aimed at measurably increasing the level of skills and training in the International Trade and Transport industry, including participants in that industry.

Accessing Assistance

ITDFund seeks applications that identify demonstrable benefit to Australia's international trade and transport industry.

Applications must comply with the funding criteria and the applicant must acknowledge that the terms and conditions for funding application have been read and understood.

If you have a project that is of notable benefit to Australia's international trade and transport industry and is a project that satisfies one or more of the criteria listed in the ITDFund's objectives please visit our website www.ITDFund.org.au to obtain a Funding Application Kit. The kit is comprised of a Pro-Forma Application, Funding Rules, and a PowerPoint presentation.

The funding application process is entirely at the cost of the applicant, regardless of the application's outcome.

Completed funding applications should be emailed to secretariat@ITDFund.org.au.
